Mr. Vail Offers to Remodel Town Hall For School Gymnasium
—Personal Items.

(Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, Correspondent)
Mr. Vail has made the selection a most generous offer regarding the Town Hall, which will certainly be accepted. He wishes to remodel the building so it can be used by the two schools for a gymnasium and assembly room. The school has long outgrown the capacity of the present chapel and such a place is greatly needed. He will add baths and a heating plant to the basement, remodel the balcony, put in a stage, and otherwise fit it up in fine shape.
This will be a splendid thing for the place.

News has been received of the death of Ralph, son of Mr. and Mrs.
Charles Berry, formerly of this place.
He was born in Lyndonville in 1884 but attended school here and a few years ago went to California for his health, but died there last month at Palm Springs.

Mrs. W. S. Jeffers fell on the ice last week Sunday while stepping out of her own kitchen door and wrenched her knee very badly, spraining the ligaments. She was taken the next day to Brightlook Hospital from where she had but recently returned, improved in health after five weeks' treatment.

The community supper and entertainment given in the new Music Hall last Tuesday evening by the Village Improvement Society, was one of the pleasantest and most successful social affairs of the winter. The supper was prepared and served from two corners of the hall, Mrs. J. M. Campbell and Mrs.
Charles M. Darling being in charge of the respective places. One hundred and ninety-four people were seated at the first table and it was found necessary to clear the tables and set them to serve nearly another hundred. As soon as the dishes and tables could be cleared away, an interesting and enjoyable program was given on the stage. E. A. Darling kindly consented to bring his Victrola, and the first number on the program included a number of beautiful selections from that machine.

The first number was a song by Caruso to Harry Lauder, and including many instrumental pieces also.
Second on the program was a shepherdess drill by 12 little girls daintily clad in white with red coats and caps, sandals and a shepherd boy in a green suit. The drill was managed by Miss Anna Spencer Frost and Mrs.
Harry Colby played the piano accompaniment. Those taking part were Misses Eleanor Beattie, Hortense Bemis, May and Irene Brea-son, Beatrice Darling, Dorothy Dexter, one of the members of the Ly-donville Glee Club, Ruth Smith and Doris Rogers. Mrs. Anna Spencer Frost gave two readings in a pleasing manner. Enjoyable vocal selections were rendered by Mrs. Samuel Holbrook in her charming contralto and by Lorenzo Eaton in bass. The program received hearty enclosures. Two songs were given by a double male quartet, which included L. Q.
Eaton, F. K. Blodgett, Dr. C. W. Waller, H. E. Wright, P. R. Griswold, H. F. Brown and C. W. Clark. These also were enjoyed. A special feature of the program was the little farce entitled "Mrs. Oakley's Telephone," a clever little play, in which the parts were well taken by Miss Alice Campbell as Mrs. Oakley, Mrs.
Charles Hale as her friend Constance; Mrs. Homer Watson as Emma, the German maid, and Mrs.
Grover Foster as Mary, the Irish cook. Mr. Ingalls of Burlington, who is in charge of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of the state, was present, and gave a short talk on the valuable work done through these clubs. Last on the program was an exhibition of modern dancing by pupils of Miss Madeline Randall's class, from ten to twelve couples taking part. At the close of the exhibition, those who wished were allowed to stay and dance, and Mr. Darling very kindly played for them on his Victrola.

Saturday afternoon brought out a big crowd to watch the races and some new horses as well. Scores were as follows:

Our new postmaster, George W.
Pierce, assumed the duties of his office Monday morning, Jan. 11. His commission arrived last week, just in time for his 41st birthday, Friday, Jan. 8. A good birthday present.
A very pleasant social event was enjoyed Sunday afternoon, Jan. 10, from 4 to 6 when Mrs. George H.
Frost entertained about 40 of her friends informally at the parlors of the Pleasant View House. The guest of honor was Mrs. Caroline Domett, the author of a variety program prepared for the occasion. Several very pleasing violin selections were rendered by Miss Elizabeth Peck of St. Johnsbury, Miss Brown of the same place being the accompanist.
The latter lady also gave two charming piano solos. Two selections, the first "Robert of Sicily" were recited by Mr. Rogers of Haverhill, N. H.

A very successful agricultural and Domestic Science Institute was held here last week from Tuesday to Friday, inclusive. These meetings were a part of the University extension work carried on by the state and were free to the townspeople, large numbers of whom availed themselves of the privilege of attending. The children of the schools were also allowed to attend parts of the session of interest to them.
The meetings were held in the Grand Army and Cable Halls by the courtesy of C. M. Darling. Among speakers of interest were many from the University of Vermont, Prof.
Jenks, Mr. Carrigan, Dr. Ladd of the State Board of Health, Mr. Lawrence, Mr. Bradley, Mr. Stimson, our county agent, and of our local agricultural faculty, Prof. Merrill and Messrs. Olney, Burrell and Braley.
Mr. Ingalls spoke on the work of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs in the state, of which work he is at the head. On Thursday evening moving pictures were shown in the Cable Hall by the state board of health.
The speakers were Miss Bertha Terrell, Mrs. Dimock and Miss Cable.
These lectures were largely attended. The whole meeting was a decided success and the attendance indicates the keen awakening on such lines which is going on in the rural districts and in which Lyndonville is taking a decided lead, being greatly stimulated by our very successful school of agriculture.

Hotel Lyndon is undergoing a thorough renovation under the direction of the new landlord, Guy Harris. Every room in the house is being re-papered, painted or varnished and the parlors, large office and dining room newly frescoed. The new proprietor is receiving many encomiums for the appearance and management of his hostelry.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrington, natives of East Walpole, who have been spending several weeks at Hotel Lyndon, have gone to California.

Miss Belle Gleason is stopping with her sister, Mrs. Charles Gray.
Thelma Mathewson has been spending a few days with her uncle, H. G. Mathewson, in Wheelock.

Mrs. Jennie Craig of West Burke was in town last week.

Mrs. Ernest Grant spent a few days last week at William Hunt's in Monroe, N. H.

W. I. Powers went to New York last week to attend the annual automobile show.

Miss Hattie Carpenter has returned from Ayer's Cliff, P. Q., where she has been spending several weeks with friends and is stopping at Harry White's.

Post Post No. 106, G. A. R., and Woman's Relief Corps No. 67. Such friendly meetings always bring pleasure and the thought of the many absent faces cannot but cause sadness.
In accordance with custom dinner was served at noon. After the dinner a social hour was enjoyed. A memorial service was then observed for the comrades of the Post who had died within the past year, three in number, Austin Bean, Curtis Mooney and a Mr. Bigelow, leaving the fast dwindling members of the Post only 11. The Post did not install officers, but continued the same ones in office for another year. The officers of the Relief Corps were installed and their names follow: President, Mrs. Leroy S. Howe, senior vice-president, Mrs. Horace P.
Emerson; junior vice-president, Mrs.
May Otis; secretary, Mrs. M. F. Stodard; treasurer, Mrs. S. G. Collinson; chaplain, Mrs. George A. Shorey; conductors, Mrs. Carlos Bundy; assistant conductor, Mrs. Willis L. Guild; guard, Mrs. Curtis Mooney; assistant guard, Mrs. John Allen; color-bearers, Mrs. John Murch, Mrs. Albert Ruggles, Mrs. Harris Allen, Mrs.
Pontbriand. This closed the exercises of a very pleasant and memorable day.

Mrs. Joseph S. Schofield will entertain the members of the Christmas Club this (Wednesday) afternoon at her home.

Mrs. E. J. Gates of Newport has been in town for several days, spending some time with her daughter, Hazel Gates, who is taking the teacher training course at Lyndon Institute.

The ball which was given Friday evening by the senior class of Lyndon Institute was a success, both socially and financially. Music was supplied by the Lyndon Institute band, and the ample dressing rooms were thoroughly appreciated.
About 75 couples took part in the dancing, and the gallery was well filled with interested spectators. The ladies who acted as patronesses were Mrs. H. E. Folson, Mrs. C. M. Darling, Miss Lois Redmond and Miss Marion Dane. The grand march to the strains of music played by Sargent's orchestra, was led by Miss Clara Graves, the class president, and Harley Leland.

Music Hall is engaged for every evening next week. On Monday and Tuesday evening, the Klark-Urban Company present a dramatic program; on Wednesday evening, the local Masonic Lodge celebrates its fiftieth anniversary; on Thursday evening the Lyndon Union Club observes the annual "night night"; on Friday evening, Miss Randall's dancing class hold their last lesson and social, to which her St. Johnsbury class is to be invited.

The Snow-Shoe Club took a tramp Saturday evening with a good crowd in attendance. They met at Far-rar's after the trip for hot cocoa and waivers.

the time talking and imbibing punch.
Willis Blake and Dale Simpson spent a few days in Sheffield last week.

The Mothers' Circle of the Lyndon Union Club will meet Thursday evening of this week, Jan. 14, with Mrs. Everett Ruggles. On the program is a paper by Miss Eliza Allen on "Modern Methods of Teaching Reading," music and a recitation by Mrs. Leonard.

Mrs. Goodwin and daughter visited friends in West Burke last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles have bought a house in Whitman, Mass., and gone there to live with his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot Cheney. James Robinson and family are moving into Mr.
Ruggles' house on Main street.

George Withers of Greensboro Bend was a visitor in town last week.
Mr. Fred Shonyo and her youngest son, Howard, visited at her father, C. Dickinson's, in East Barnet, recently.

Philip Ferguson returned last week to resume his studies at Middlebury College after the holiday vacation.

The Congregational Church will hold their annual meeting in the vestry Thursday evening of this week.
There will be reports of officers, election of new officers and refreshments will be served.

Alfred Simpson, principal of the Lamotte Central Academy at Hyde Park, has been visiting his uncle, James D. Dexter.

Floyd Hartwell is moving into the tenement vacated by H. H. Butterfield in the company house on the corner of Main and Grove streets.

J. W. Titcomb addressed the Board of Trade and Cosmopolitan Club at Springfield last week.

Miss Ruth Burpee is recovering from a severe attack of tonsillitis.

R. R. Carter has moved into the tenement in Mrs. N. B. Harvey's house on Williams street, which was recently vacated by John Lincoln.

James Dexter has been appointed vice-inspector for the Boston and Maine railroad. J. M. Murch, who has held this position, has resigned as his health is very poor and he plans to go South for the winter before long.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shorey and Lawrence have been in Boston for a few days.

Mrs. E. L. Thompson has gone to Laconia, N. H., to stay with her daughter, Mrs. Adams, for a time.
Miss Ethel Park goes to Bradford as assistant in the high school.
The sad news was received here last Thursday of the sudden death of J. W. Spain of Quitman, Georgia, who married Grace, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hutchinson of this place. Mr. Spain was driving with his oldest son, J. W. Spain, Jr., through the pine woods near their plantation, when he was killed and the young man injured seriously by a falling tree. Severe storms and high winds had been prevalent. Mr.
Spain's death was almost instan-taneous, Jack suffered a broken thigh and arm, a dislocated shoulder and a deep scalp wound, but is expected to recover.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

Large Attendance at Congregational Church—Installation at Grange (Ella McLaughlin, Correspondent.)

On Sunday at the Congregational church, Rev. Mr. Grant preached an excellent sermon on "Lesson from the Devil." A committee of eight men were appointed to invite the men of the village to come to this service, the result being that Mr.
Grant had an audience of about 75, men, women and children. We hope next Sunday the audience may be as large, if not larger.

The H. and D. Mass are making plans for a Valentine and Lincoln entertainment to be given in February. This week they are planning to go on a barge ride to Lyndonville.
They have invited the girls class to go.

At the regular meeting of Wide Awake Grange on Saturday evening, there were over 75 out. The installing officers were installed in a very pleasing manner by Deputy Moore and wife; Master, Ezra Learned; overseer, Fred Hill, lecturer, Mrs.
Fred Knowlton; steward, Don Washburn; assistant steward, Allen Underwood; chaplain, Mrs. Allen Underwood; treasurer, H. C. Powers; secretary, Mrs. Harry Hovey; gate keeper, James Learned; Pomona, Rose Hill; Flora, Cecil Eastman; Ceres, Mrs. E. G. Learned; lady assistant steward, Mrs. A. B. Colbath.
This was followed by a short program consisting of piano solo, Mrs.
A. B. Colbath; reading, Mrs. Harry Hovey; reading, from "Hiawatha," Miss Folsom; vocal solo, Miss Bertha Salmon. Then the members and visitors were invited to the dining hall, where an oyster supper was served.

Mrs. Worthen, who was going to her son's last week, fell on the side walk last Monday and broke her hip.
She was taken to Brightlook Hospital.

Mrs. Dan Gallagher and son, Walter, have been visiting relatives at Waterford for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Smith, formerly of St. Johnsbury, but now of Lynn, Mass., have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Jenness. Mr. and Mrs. Blodgett of St. Johnsbury was also their guests on Sunday.

Fred C. Grier, who has been visiting his mother at Rochester, N. H., and visiting in Haverhill, Mass., has returned home.

Emerson Campbell, who has been at home several weeks, went Monday morning to Swanton, where he has a position.

Bert C. Grier has been visiting his home at Groton the past week.

Mrs. Bert McLaughlin, Annie Hall and Walter Wheeler have been confined to the house with tonsillitis.

E. H. Hallett was in Sutton Saturday on Grange work.
